

Doctoral minor in Entrepreneurship

Who's eligible? The Option A minor is available now to non-Business PhD students. Business School PhD students may NOT complete an Option A minor within the School of Business because the Graduate School considers the School of Business to be one department.

What goes on the transcript? Non-Business PhD students will have the minor denoted "business" on their transcript.

What's involved? For a non-Business PhD student to complete the Option A minor, the student will complete at least 10 credits of coursework:

At THREE credits from the following doctoral level courses (or substantially similar):

MHR 835 – Research Methods – Management (3 credits)
MHR 870 – Seminar – Administrative Policy (3 credits) (When entrepreneurial is major focus)
MHR 975 – Doctoral Research Seminar in Management (2 credits)
MHR 976 – Doctoral Research Seminar – Methods (Theory development)
MHR 977 – Contemporary Topics in Entrepreneurship (3 credits) (INSITE academic seminar)
MHR 999 – Readings and Research (1-6 credits) with focus on creation of new social institutions, or entrepreneurial behavior at the individual, group, organization or industry/regional level.

At least SEVEN credits from the following list of courses (or substantially similar):

MHR 722 – Entrepreneurial Management (3 credits)
MHR 727 – Entrepreneurial Growth Strategies (3 credits)
MHR 734 – Venture Creation (3 credits)
MHR 765 – Technology Entrepreneurship (3 credits)
FIN 757 – Entrepreneurial Finance (3 credits)

Where may I learn more about minors at UW-Madison?

Please see the information online at:

<http://www.bus.wisc.edu/phd/programs/minor.asp#nonbusiness>

Who may I contact with questions?

Please email Anne Miner at aminer@bus.wisc.edu for more information.